EXAMINER'S AMENDMENT AND REASONS FOR ALLOWANCE

Examiner's Amendment

An examiner's amendment to the record appears below. Should the changes and/or additions be unacceptable to applicant, an amendment may be filed as provided by 37 CFR 1.312. To ensure consideration of such an amendment, it MUST be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee.

The application has been amended as follows:

On page 1 of the specification, line two of paragraph 001, after "...October 29, 2001," now abandoned, has been inserted.

Reasons for Allowance

The patent to Innami et al. (5,834,732) is cited to show a prior art arc welder wherein the time derivative of consumable electrode resistance is detected (see figure 8 and the discussion at column 11 labeled "Example 6" in the patent).

The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance: none of the prior art of record teaches or suggests an arc welding method or device with all of the features claimed. More particularly, none of the prior art of record discloses the current control executed based on the detection of the minimum of the electric resistance and after a predetermined amount of time has elapsed after the detection of the minimum of the electric resistance as set forth in claims 1 and 8. None of the prior art of record discloses the current control executed after detecting the minimum of the electric resistance and when the electric resistance reaches a level equal to the stored value of the resistance minimum plus a resistance offset value as set forth in claim 9. The other claims are allowable at least because they depend from allowable independent claims 1, 8, and 9.

Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."
